Artisans of Barossa at
NAB Barossa Gourmet Weekend
August 21-22, 2010

The Artisans of Barossa are 12 small winemakers with a commitment to hand-crafted wines of the highest quality, representing the breadth of the Barossa and Eden Valleys.

For the NAB Barossa Gourmet Weekend (Aug 21-22), the Artisans will call 'The Farm' their home, and welcome you on a journey through the many sub-regions of the Barossa and Eden Valleys.

Saturday August 21, 11am – 4pm:

The annual Artisans Cellar Door Day

12 winemakers; more than 70 wines; a grazing menu of local produce, and tasting book.

Ticket to Cellar Door Day: $30

Location: The Farm (Next to Maggie Beer Farm Shop)
Pheasant Farm Road (off Samuels Road), Nuriootpa

Sunday August 22, 10.30am – 12.30pm:

Home is where the Art is Artisans guide to the real Barossa

Acclaimed wine writer and raconteur Nick Ryan (Australian Gourmet Traveller WINE, Jamie Oliver magazine, Men's Style) is our special guest for an informal and fun tasting of the best wines in the Artisans family. Discover the qualities of Barossa's many sub-regions by tasting the wines in themed brackets with Nick and the Artisans themselves. Following the tasting, join the Artisans for a drink and get to know the personalities behind the wines.

Sunday August 22, 1pm – 3pm:

Long table lunch with the Artisans

The Artisans of Barossa was "born" over a long lunch, enjoying each other's wines with great food. Artisans Gill Radford and Peter Clarke are considered two of the finest chefs in the Barossa, and are joining forces to design a menu that continues this great tradition. Bookings are essential – only 80 seats are available.

Ticket to Tasting only: $40 / Ticket to Tasting and lunch: $85

Across the entire weekend, you will be able to buy these rare wines that you won't see on the high street.

Home is where the art is – so take an Artisan home.
